

Mental Health Court/Dual Diagnosis/Diversion Court-based Programs - Adult
Program Name	Location of Program	Funding Source	Hours of Operation	Center	Description	Contact
18th Judicial Mental Health Court Tx Team	7325 S. Potomac St., Centennial, CO 80112	Grants & Agency GF	M - F: 7am - 6pm	ADMHN	Two licensed therapists, 3 case managers, part-time nurse, part-time psychiatrist, part-time peer mentor provide therapeutic and case management services to individuals that have plead to a felony (non-violent, non-sexual). These individuals enter an intensive two-year program (minimum committment) to address mental health issues, sbstance abuse issues, and criminal thinking. Wrap-around services include housing assistance and employment skills assistance.	Barbara Becker: 303-996-6133
Criminal Justice Coordinating Committee 6th Judicial District				Axis	Judicial committee to explore and implement alternatives to incarceration for adolecents and adults within the 6th Judicial District. Partners include Judges, District Attorney, Public Defender, jail staff, law enforcement, jail ministry, social services, San Juan Basin Health Department, Southern Ute Indian Tribe.	Linda Lute: llute@axishealthsystem.org
Adult Drug Court 6th Judicial District				Axis	Collaborative judicial process specifically tailored to target offenders with substance related crimes. Partners include the County Court Judge, probation, defense attorneys, substance use disorder treatment providers.	Tom Bonde tbonde@axishealthsystem.org
Routt County Drug Court				Colorado West	In partnership with the Routt County combined courts adult SA offenders can be sentenced to Drug Court and also to reicieve services.	Erika Schmitz, 970-879-2141
Summit County Drug Court				Colorado West	In partnership with Summit county and the 5th judicial District SA services and screening are provided. Services include: indivudial counseling, group counseling, medication management and detox.	Kathy Davis, 970-668-3478
Jefferson County Recovery Court				Jefferson Center	Jefferson County Recovery Court is a specialty court that serves non-violent addicted offenders with intensive substance abuse treatment. It is an evidenced-based program that uses appropriate incentives and sanctions with participants to promote pro-social behavior, decrease recidivism and more costly and restrictive criminal justice resources. The offenders are screened and if accepted by the collaborative team, they are offered the opportunity to participate in an intensive outpatient program or an intensive residential program, if that level of care is warranted, to promote successful recovery.	Jennifer Kawakami: jennifer.kawakami@judicial.state.co.us 303-271-6324 Katy Bruscino, Manager of Adult Criminal Justice Services: katyb@jcmh.org
Family Treatment Court				Larimer Center for Mental Health	Larimer Center for Mental Health works with Larimer County Department of Human Services, the 8th Judicial District, and local attorneys to provide Family Treatment Court. The court serves families involved in a child protection action, when the parent or parents have a significant drug or alcohol problem. By providing intensive supervision and treatment, families are guided towards reunification and recovery.	john.wilde@larimercenter.org

Denver Criminal Justice Initiative (DCJI) Adult Services	1733 Vine Street, Denver, CO 80206	SB97 & Agency	M-F: 8-5	Mental Health Center of Denver	Assertive Community Treatment services delivered to 48 adults with current criminal justice involvement.	Angie Elzi: 303-504-1022
Adult Integrated Treatment Court(AITC)	20th Judicial District Offices	Community Safety Tax		Mental Health Partners	This adult court is for offenders failing probation who have substance use issues and sometimes, co-occurring mental illness.	Phyllis Klaif: 303-413-6285
Adult Drug Court (ADC)	1260 H St. Greeley, CO 80631		ADC Tx Team - Thurs. 1:30-3pm; Court Session 3-5p	North Range Behavioral Health	Minimum 18 month program that consists of 5 phases for drug offender to work through. Treatment is individualized.	Dana Wellman 970-347-2021
Partnership for Progress - Integrated Treatment Court				Southeast Mental Health Services	The purpose of the court is to give non-violent offenders who have drug & alcohol problems an alternative to traditional forms of punishment. The court offers substance abuse treatment rather than long stays in county jails or state prisons. The program helps offenders take responsibility for their behavior, demonstrate accountability, and become productive citizens again.	Becky Otteman: botteman@semhs.org
San Luis Valley Drug Court				San Luis Valley MHC	Family Drug court involves a solid committed group of providers (mental health, substance abuse, family preservation and other local agencies and resources) that work with the judicial system and department of human services to provide immediate effective services for DSS clients.	Judy McNeilsmith: jmcneil@slvmhc.org