Welcome Fellow Innovators,

On behalf of the Colorado Behavioral Healthcare Council, we welcome you to our 2016 conference. This year’s theme, “Wellness Starts Here,” is an attempt to solidify the notion that not only are we, behavioral health professionals, the best suited to spread wellness through our work in the community and with our clients, but to also reinforce this theme with our colleagues and co-workers. In practice, every day, we must reinforce wellness through behavior modification and self care that happens at home and in the workplace.

At the core of this transformation is creating more emphasis on prevention and wellness as a key tenet in health care. We believe that behavioral health is a critical component of overall health, and wellness is the first step in that journey.

Robert F. Kennedy said, “It is not enough to understand, or to see clearly. The future will be shaped in the arena of human activity, by those willing to commit their minds and their bodies to the task.” We have seen the great minds of Colorado work together to build and create a vision for behavioral health. Now is the time to nurture our minds and take care of our bodies, too.

In developing the program for this year’s conference, we sought a variety of perspectives, tools and resources to promote thought and conversation so we may continue to innovate, evolve, and support ourselves, and each other, through times of transition and uncertainty.

You are the dynamic and visionary leaders in this field, and we are honored and appreciate that you have chosen to travel on this journey with us this week. We are confident you will find much to value and enjoy at our conference.

Be well,

Doyle Forrestal

Call 1-800-525-2253 for reservations

Hotel rooms start at $109+ tax and service charge

Be sure to mention you are attending the CBHC conference to receive the discount rate.

Hotel registration web link: www.cbhc.org/conference16/hotel.html

Group Rate Deadline: All reservations must be made by September 1, 2016 to receive the CBHC group rates. Group rate will be given on a first come – first served basis, so make your reservations early. If your organization has special hotel billing requirements for multiple rooms, please contact Beaver Run directly for assistance in coordinating your group hotel reservations.

Hotel Cancellation/Refund Policy: Summer Deposit/Cancellation Policies at Beaver Run Resort: A one night’s deposit is required at time of booking. Reservations must be canceled at least 72 hours prior to arrival to receive refund, less $35.00 processing fee. Cancellations made fewer than 72 hours from arrival date are subject to a one night’s cancellation fee. Reduction in length of stay or room type within the 72 hour penalty period, no shows, late arrivals, and early departures are considered cancellations, and are therefore non-refundable.

Deposit: A deposit of one night’s room rate, in the form of a credit card payment or check, will be required when making an individual reservation. Neither CBHC nor Beaver Run will be coordinating roommate accommodations. Coordination of roommates and payment for rooms are the responsibility of the individual and the member organization making the reservation. The standard Beaver Run cancellation policy will apply.

Tax Exemption: To receive tax exemption for lodging, a tax exempt certificate and agency check or credit card must be presented to the hotel upon arrival.
Relax and Play

Check out the many things you can enjoy while at the conference:

Yoga
Start your morning off on Thursday, Friday and Saturday with 45 minutes of yoga before breakfast in the building 3 pool area. Yoga instructors have been hired to teach a morning yoga class just for conference attendees.

Resort Workout Facilities
All attendees staying at the Beaver Run Resort have complimentary access to the workout facilities located next to the pool in building 3. Take a few minutes to get the heart pumping and strengthen those muscles!

Pool & Hot Tub
Take a dip in the Indoor/Outdoor Pool or soak in a Hot Tub after a long day.

Massage - by A Spa Affair
Get a chair massage in the CBHC Exhibit Hall or enjoy a relaxing massage in The Spa at Beaver Run in building 1. For Appointments call: (970) 453-8757 In-house dial ext. 8757

Hiking
Take advantage of the beautiful mountains and trails surrounding Beaver Run. Even a short 20 minute hike can change your day!

Horseback Riding
Explore the Ten Mile Range just as it was explored over a hundred years ago. Breckenridge Stables is offering all CBHC members 30% off their rates using CBHC as your code. Reservations required; call 970-453-4438.

Check out the Breckenridge Hospitality Table (located in the convention center third floor foyer) to get details about local tours, hiking trails, mountain biking, fly fishing and horseback riding!

Pre-Con 1: Assessment and Diagnosis Considerations in Early Childhood

This pre-conference full-day training will focus on the Assessment and Diagnosis Considerations in Early Childhood including training in the DC: 0-3R Diagnostic Classification; application of this classification to a case study; other considerations such as development, temperament and culture; as well as intervention recommendations. This is a must for clinicians providing services for children 0-5.

Betsy Rogers, LCSW is Division Director for Prevention, Early Intervention, Training and Education for Aurora Mental Health Center with experience in infant and early childhood mental health for twenty years. Betsy is involved with the Colorado Association for Infant Mental Health’s Endorsement and is involved in early childhood mental health systems building and workforce development.

Sue Ammen, PhD, RPT-S, IFECMH-SP & RF-III is Program Manager for the Early Childhood and Family Center at Aurora Mental Health, Licensed psychologist, Registered Play Therapist & Supervisor and Infant, Family & Early Childhood Mental Health Specialist & Mentor through California endorsement, IMH-E(IV). She has been involved in infant and early childhood mental health for 18 years including providing academic and professional training in diagnostic systems in infant-preschooler mental health.

Noelle Hause EdD, LPC, IMH-E® (IV)-C in Infant Mental Health Endorsement Clinical Mentor, is the Young Child Wellness Coordinator for Project LAUNCH Weld Systems Navigation Project and Program Director of the Young Child and Family Team at North Range Behavioral Health.

Pre-Con 2: Behavioral Health Payment Reform: How to Succeed in a World of Phase II Accountable Care Collaboratives | Breakfast & Lunch Sponsored by Colorado Access

As Colorado’s Medicaid system continues to evolve, Phase II of the Accountable Care Collaborative brings new opportunities and challenges, especially in the area of payment reform. This pre-conference will help participants gain a deep understanding of the “hydraulics” of behavioral health payment reform, utilizing a computer-based “Flight Simulator” to dive into a case study that is organized around implementing Value-Based Purchasing (VBP) models. Participants will learn about and practice balancing demand and capacity; pricing their services to achieve financial sustainability. Key topics will include: 1) Key Theories of Value-Based Purchasing, 2) Designing VBP Models at the ACC Level, 3) Organizing at the Provider Level to Succeed in a VBP World. Bring a laptop (if you have one), and your thinking cap, and prepare to spend a day preparing for the future of payment reform.

Dale Jarvis, CPA, BA in Educational Psychology, is the founder of Dale Jarvis and Associates LLC, a Seattle-based healthcare consulting firm. Dale has spent the last twenty-five years working with governments, health plans and providers to design and implement accountable payment models and service delivery redesigns to support transformation from a model that pays for volume to one that pays for value. Dale has written extensively on this work and is the co-author of two books on healthcare system redesign. He has been a certified public accountant in the State of Washington and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants since 1982.
Joining the Head and the Body: Primary Care-Mental Health Integration for Safe and Effective Management of Chronic Pain

Background: Patients with mental health comorbidities and chronic pain pose unique challenges for our healthcare system as currently designed, i.e. a system which treats issues of the mind somewhat separately from issues of the rest of the body. This patient population often presents to primary care long before they are connected with mental and behavioral health, leading to fractured management of mental and primary health issues, delayed identification of substance use disorder and addiction, and overall poorer health outcomes. Further complicating the care of this population is their increased risk for misuse of pain medications and adverse events related to opioid therapy. Appropriately structured, integrated health offers tremendous opportunities to address these issues.

Program Goal: Using actual cases as our guide, we will review different models of integrated primary and mental healthcare that can be brought to bear for improved care coordination, disease management, and patient and provider satisfaction. Cases will highlight common and complex clinical scenarios, including care of the primary care patient with chronic pain and chronic illness, the pregnant opioid dependent patient, and the patient with behavioral disorder, chronic pain and substance use. We will explore the spectrum of integrated care from co-located to fully integrated and co-managed care and the use of Medication Assisted Therapy (MAT) in these complex and varied settings. Cases will be used to demonstrate best practices for integrated care and management of chronic pain and practical tools for implementing these recommendations in practice.

Symposium Agenda Highlights

- Review of Integrated Care Best Practices
- Patient Presentation
- Clinical Vignette #1: The Unique Needs of the Primary Care Patient with Chronic Pain
- Clinical Vignette #2: The Pregnant Patient with Opioid Dependence
- What Does Integrated Care Look Like in Your Setting?
- Clinical Vignette #3: Felix the Cat: What To Do When One Patient Has Behavioral Health Needs, Chronic Pain and SUD
- Tools for the Integrated Team: Medication Assisted Treatment
- Technology Tools for Integrating Pain Management and Behavioral Health

#303 | The Health Delivery Organization: Moving from Sick Care to Health

Healthcare reform is silently bringing about a seismic shift from today’s fragmented, sick care system to the rapid evolution of a new type of entity – the “health-delivery organization.” Note the missing four letters: the new organization delivers “health”, not “healthcare.” This session will provide examples of early adopter health-delivery organizations and explore the implications for individuals experiencing behavioral health disorders and the organizations that serve them. Session attendees will: 1) Discover what a truly integrated, community-based system of care looks like 2) Assess the implications for individuals living with behavioral health disorders and 3) Identify strategies for closing the gap between the status quo and the future.

Dale Jarvis, CPA, BA (see bio page 16)

#304 | The Colorado Gun Shop Project: An Unlikely Partnership Between Public Health and Gun Shops, Targeting Firearm Safety and Suicide Prevention

This presentation will detail the history, adoption and expansion of the Gun Shop Project, and will illustrate how leveraging innovative partnerships can introduce suicide prevention and public health messages to new and untapped audiences and stakeholders.

Jarrod Hindman, MS (see bio page 21)
Keynote | Aligning for Innovation

According to Edgar Papke, our human desire for innovation is infinite and is the key to the fulfillment of purpose and the delivery of competitive advantage. He also argues that the greatest barrier to innovation that leaders and organizations contend with is a lack of alignment in their cultures and leadership. Drawing on his experience working with high performing organizations, teams and leaders, Edgar will share a set of practical insights and strategies for how to better align your organization or team to achieve higher levels of innovation and shared personal fulfillment.

Edgar Papke is globally recognized as an insightful executive coach. Edgar is an award-winning speaker and the best-selling author of the books True Alignment and The Elephant in The Boardroom. He writes and speaks about leadership and the human art of business and focuses his work on helping leaders and their teams align to attain their goals, personal fulfillment and leadership legacies.

#503 | Care and Feeding of Excellent Boards and Staff

Directors and executives can explore why people join Boards and identify how staff and Directors WANT to work together. Best practices help create healthy actions and resilience in mental health agencies.

Judith Blair (see bio page 25)
#504 | How to Say Anything to Anybody: Setting Expectations for Powerful Working Relationships

You have a request for one of your co-workers, but don’t know how to say it, so you don’t say anything. A project you worked on for six months has become a black hole. There is no information about the status. You’re frustrated, but you say nothing. Two employees aren’t working well together. It’s impacting the atmosphere in the office. You don’t know what to say, so you say nothing. Speaking up when we are frustrated is hard and as a result, most of us don’t. Instead, either we tell other people (aka gossip) or we say nothing, and relationships become strained. You can say anything to anyone and have it be easy. You just need to lay the ground work to do so.

Shari Harley, MA in Applied Communications is the founder and President, Candid Culture is the author of the book How to Say Anything to Anyone, is known globally as an engaging, funny, content-rich business speaker. Her international training firm, Candid Culture, is making it easier to tell the truth at work. Shari is bringing candor back to the workplace. A former HR practitioner and operations leader, Shari’s practical approach has led her to speak and train in Singapore, Thailand, Malaysia, India, Dubai and Australia.

#600 | Implementing Trauma-Informed Systems of Care: Highlighting the Role of Organizations in Employee Well-Being

Program administrators often overlook the impact of the workplace environment on compassion fatigue and it is impossible to provide effective trauma-informed services if staff are unwell. This presentation will discuss how organizational culture affects trauma, worker’s well-being and provide information on what administration, supervisors, and peers can do to promote an environment that promotes growth and well-being.

Joni Handran PhD, LCSW, CACIII in Education and Social Work has 17 years of experience working with vulnerable populations. Joni is a part-time instructor in the School of Social Work at Colorado State University where she teaches clinical, organizational, and research courses. Joni provides counseling, supervision and training on trauma-informed care and staff development through her clinical practice in Denver. Joni’s professional, teaching and research interests include the role organizations play in employee well-being, trauma-informed care and providing effective services to individuals healing from trauma.

#601 | Let’s Talk about Life: Overdoses in Colorado

Overdoses are the leading cause of accidental death in Colorado, ahead of car accidents. We will overview the CO landscape over the past 15 years of overdose increases. Learn why people overdose and how to respond. In addition, learn about the efforts of harm reduction organizations, law enforcement and others in the fight to keep people alive in our community.

Lisa Raville, BA in Communications is the Executive Director of the Harm Reduction Action Center. She has been with the HRAC since 2009. She provides management, fundraising, grant writing, syringe access, policy-advocacy initiatives, and is the agency liaison in the community. Lisa is the Board of Directors’ Vice President of the Colorado Criminal Justice Coalition and the Naloxone Workgroup co-chair for the Colorado Consortium on Prescription Drug Abuse Prevention. In 2014, Lisa won the Colorado Public Health Association Award for Excellence in Policy. Lisa holds a Bachelor's Degree in Communications and Women’s Studies from DePaul University in Chicago, IL.

She continues to work to advance integrated care efforts, increase mental health literacy, expand support and ensure access for mental health services across the community. Jeannie served as the co-chair of the legislative task force (House Bill 2013–1296) to make recommendations for updating Colorado civil commitment laws. Her 10-year experience as a teacher in Denver Public Schools reinforced her conviction of supporting all families with behavioral health concerns. Jeannie remains active in the community serving on numerous boards and committees, including the Depression Center, CeDAR (Center for Dependency, Addiction and Rehabilitation), the Rose Community Foundation Health Committee, the Colorado Coalition for Parity, the Governor’s Residence Preservation Fund, SIM Advisory Board and Rocky Mountain PBS Board.
