COMMUNITY ORGANIZING
1. What is the problem to solve, or goal to reach?
2. Who might have information about existing efforts (local or beyond)?
3. Who has resources to contribute to the solution (staff time, financial or in-kind resources, knowledge of the problem and/or solutions)?
4. Who is interested in being involved, what are they interested in doing, and what are they hoping to gain?

COMPREHENSIVE NALOXONE OUTREACH
- First responders
- Pharmacies
- Emergency departments
- Medical clinics
- Treatment organizations; AA/NA community
- Harm reduction organizations
- Criminal justice system – jail, halfway house, probation, alternative sentencing, drug court
- Human services organizations and businesses that have high contact with the public
- People from the public who might have interest or opportunity to reverse an overdose

RESOURCES
- www.stoptheclockcolorado.org
- Naloxone For Life
- State Targeted Response grant
- Harm Reduction Organizations
- International Overdose Awareness Day
- Students or faculty from local universities
- Health Departments
- Regional Health Connectors
- CO Consortium

CONTACT
Kiley Floren: kfloren@healthdistrict.org; Jess Fear: jfear@healthdistrict.org; Jess phone: 970-224-5209