

Resources

University of Hertfordshire - <http://www.intellectualdisability.info/mental-health>
Various articles, trainings, and videos on topics relating to I/DD and mental health

South Dakota State University - <https://www.sdstate.edu/counseling-and-human-development/counseling-those-developmental-disabilities>
Several PowerPoints on working with folks with I/DD, including around grief, depression

NADD - <http://thenadd.org/>
Homepage for working with people with dual diagnosis, some general information, resources, and conferences

DM-ID 2; Diagnostic manual put out by NADD based on the DSM-5 with overview of how certain sx's and dx may present with people with I/DD

Rocky Mountain Human Services - <https://www.rmhumanservices.org/>
Denver CCB that provides trainings on I/DD and mental health from time to time

Far from the Tree: Parents, Children, and the Search for Identity by Andrew Solomon

The Sexual Assault Epidemic No One Talks About by Joseph Shapiro
<https://www.npr.org/2018/01/08/570224090/the-sexual-assault-epidemic-no-one-talks-about>

Colorado Resources

The Arc of Colorado; Oversees all chapters of the Arc in Colorado
<https://thearcofco.org/>

Special Olympics Colorado; Oversees all chapters of Special Olympics in Colorado
<http://www.specialolympicsco.org/>

JFK Partners; department of University of Colorado, Anschutz Medical Campus focused on testing, support services, therapies for autism
<http://www.ucdenver.edu/academics/colleges/medicalschoo/programs/JFKPartners/Pages/JFK%20Partners.aspx>

Person Centered Boards; Colorado Department of Health. (It's probably most helpful to find your local Person Centered Board.) See handout from Colorado Department of Health.